After many efforts she has practically given up the task of developing her sea poing marine in the Baltic, and is now devoting herself stendily to increasing it in the Black Sea. Here the steamers are not frozen keen as in the north, although our ship owners run Russia very hard. Of course, with out a very heavy subsidy, the steamers of the Black Sea Navigation Company could not seriously compete with English vessels in conveying cargoes to the Pacific; and even with it, complaints are being raised against English steamers for commencing a provoking rivalry with it in the local service between the Black Sea ports. However, from motives of a special and military character, the Government is supporting the Company to the ntmost, and, in excess of portunity for sacuring it vanished when the subsidy, is forwarding by the steamers hundreds of emigrants and exiles, as well as extensive consignments of military stores to its Pacific possessions. Mr. Wolton defended. Sergeant Raffin, of the Singapore Police, having produced the warrant and information on which the defendant was arrested, stated that he had seen the defendant on police duty at Singspore. In answer to cross examination by Mr. Wetton, he said be was not aware whether the defendant had entered in the force, nor did he know whether he had ever been sworn in. Mr. Wotton cited other ful detention on the 1st and 2nd April last and cases bearing upon this point, and proceeded to his second point of objection to the warrant, viz, that there was no offence stated in it. He again quoted from the same page of Burns's work, and to the remarks of Lambert, referred to in 2 Hale, Privy Council, 111; and 1 Gale and D., 1 A. and Ell., New Series, in which it was laid down that a warrant should state the specific offence with which the party was charged In the warrant before the Court there was no specific offence charged; it could only be generally gleaned from the imagination from what the warrant contained that the offence alleged was one of desertion from the Singapore Police Force. If the agreement could not be sued upon, the defendant could not be found guilty for a breach of it. The Fourth Section laid down that no action could be brought upon any contract not to be performed within a year unless such contract was in writing signed by the party to be charged. POST-OFFICE NOTICES.

When Correspondence has been mis-sent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addressee need do is to note on the cover, Sent to _____, or Received at 7 p.m., of as the case may be, and forward it, without any other writing what ver, to the Postmister-General. This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is mistake to let such matters pass for fear giving trouble, a course which generally gives more trouble in the end.
